

PARAGON CONVENT SCHOOL

SECTOR – 24 B CHANDIGARH

CLASS – VI , NOVEL

DIARY OF A WIMPY KID

PAGES : 1 – 20

The novel begins with Greg Heffley getting ready for his first day in middle school , when he is teased by his older brother ,Rodrick, because his mother bought him his school supplies (Diary). Greg also has a spoiled little brother called Manny , who gets everything he wants and never gets in trouble . His father Frank does not enjoy Greg’s lifestyle of playing video games all day instead of going outside and playing sports.

During his first day of school , Greg is forced to sit with the school nerd called Fregley , whom he tries to keep distance from. He isn’t sure whether his friend Rowley Jefferson will be able to fit in middle school, because he considers him to be immature. Bryce is the most popular in his grade. Greg figures himself around 52nd or 53rd. He slipped away to the basketball court during Physical Education class to see if the cheese was still there . One day , Darren Walsh touched the cheese with his finger , and that started this thing called the Cheese Touch. To get rid of the cheese touch , kids keep their fingers crossed. A couple of days into summer vacation , Rodrick wakes him up in the middle of the night. He set Greg’s alarm clock ahead to make him look it was morning. Greg just got up and makes some breakfast. Meanwhile his father reaches there and shouts at him for eating Cheerios at 3:00 in the morning. Next day at school they get assigned to the reading groups. Greg gets selected for ' Einstein As A Child ' but he is disappointed because that just means a lot of extra work. Greg loves to play the pranks on Rowley which Rodrick plays on him.
