NOVEL: MATILDA

CHAPTER-9, 10

SUMMARY

Miss Honey went to see Matilda's parents to ask them about Matilda's intelligence and also if she was allowed to have private tuition with the little girl. She rang the doorbell and Mr. Wormwood came out. She introduced herself and swiftly Mr. Wormwood asked whether Matilda was of any trouble to her. She shook her head and asked for permission to come in. Mr. and Mrs. Wormwood were annoyed as their favourite programme was on TV. When asked whether they taught Matilda how to read they said no. Miss Honey was quite shocked. Then Mrs. Wormwood said that she chose looks and not books and mocked Miss Honey. Miss Honey then left and she was very disappointed.

Matilda and Lavender met a girl named Hortensia who thinks she knows everything. She boasts about putting itching powder in Miss Trunchbull knickers, causing her to be thrown in the Chokey. Then, right at that moment, Miss Trunchbull shouted a girl's name, Amanda who had long pigtails. Hortensia said that Trunchbull doesn't like pigtails. Then, the action began. Miss Trunchbull took the girl by her pigtails and swung the girl round and round before throwing her. Matilda was shocked after watching this.
