

PARAGON CONVENT SCHOOL

CLASS 2

CHAPTER -11

NATIONAL FESTIVALS

SUMMARY

Festivals which are celebrated by the whole nation are called national festivals.

There are three national festivals of India: Independence Day, Republic Day and Gandhi Jayanti.

EXERCISE

A. Tick the correct option.

1. President
2. Prime Minister
3. Gujarat

B. Tick correct dates.

1. 2nd October 1869
2. 15th August 1947
3. 26th January 1950

C. Match the following.

1(d) 2 (a) 3(c) 4(b)

NOTE : Do the following work in the notebook.

Difficult words

- | | |
|------------|-----------------|
| 1. Nation | 2. Celebrated |
| 3. Country | 4. British |
| 5. Hoists | 6. Constitution |
| 7. Salute | 8. Parade |

Question /Answers

Q1. Why is Republic Day celebrated?

Ans. Republic Day is celebrated to honour the day on which the constitution of India came into effect.

Q2. Why is Independence Day celebrated?

Ans. Independence Day is celebrated because on this day our country became free from British rule.

Q3. Name any two national festivals of India.

Ans. Two national festivals of India are :

1. Republic Day
2. Gandhi Jayanti