

PRAGON CONVENT SCHOOL, SECTOR 24B, CHANDIGARH

CLASS- VI (NOVEL)

PAGES: 136-178

In January, Greg and Rowley invent a game for the Big Wheel in which Greg throws a football at Rowley as he rides down a hill. Unfortunately, Rowley breaks his hand and gets lots of sympathy and attention at school. Greg signs up for Independent Study and his class is assigned to build a robot, but the class gets cancelled when the boys make a list of all the words that the robot should not say. Greg and Rowley sign up for Safety Patrol to walk kindergarteners home halfway through the day. In February, it snows, and Greg and Rowley try to set the world's record for the tallest snowman, which ends with an ambush by the Whirley Street kids. When the school paper needs a new cartoonist, Greg and Rowley create cartoons that end with "Zoo-Wee Mama!" Greg creates his own character called Creighton the Cretin, submits several samples, and wins the position. However, Mr. Ira revises Greg's masterpiece into a comic that promotes math.
