

PRAGON CONVENT SCHOOL, SECTOR 24B, CHANDIGARH

CLASS- VI (NOVEL)

PAGES: 179-217

In March, Greg chases the kindergarteners with a worm on a stick, and Rowley gets blamed. When Greg feels confused about whether to confess, Rowley tells the truth. Greg gets kicked off the Safety Patrol and Rowley gets a promotion. In April, Rowley gets a new best friend, Collin Lee. When Rowley has a sleepover with Collin, Greg goes to Fregley's house for a sleepover, but it ends badly. It is during this time that Greg decides that he wants to be named Class Clown. In May, when his history teacher announces that they will have a substitute, Greg considers it the perfect opportunity to play a trick, but his plan fails when his mother shows up and embarrasses him. Rowley becomes the new cartoonist for the school paper with "Zoo-Wee Mama!" When Greg confronts Rowley about stealing his idea, the former friends nearly fight on the playground. The teenagers from Halloween show up and make Rowley eat the cheese from the basketball court. The next day, when someone notices that the cheese is gone, Greg takes the blame. In June, Greg and Rowley start hanging out together again. On the last day of school, when Rowley is named Class Clown, Greg throws his yearbook in the trash.
